May 31, 2022

General Eligibility

Athletes must meet the general eligibility requirements as outlined on the World Games Games Qualifying Site.

Identification Process:

1. Athlete eligibility lists will be distributed to all communities for initial community endorsement.
2. Athletes on the eligibility list who are interested in being identified for the World Games will be required to submit a Declaration of Interest Form by June 30, 2022
3. Declaration forms will be reviewed to confirm eligibility.
4. Random draw #1 that will take place on July 4, 2022 to select a maximum of 8 male athletes who will be invited to proceed through the identification process.
5. Coach endorsement of the invited athletes will take place.
6. The invited athletes will be required to provide proof of ability (video submission required) to compete in the events listed below. Final time and video must be submitted by July 25, 2022.
7. Athlete results will be reviewed. Athletes whose results meet the sport specific criteria outlined below will be entered into the final random draw.
8. A final parent/guardian endorsement will take place.
9. Athlete's names will be submitted to Special Olympics Canada for final review and announcement to the National Team Training Program.

Male athletes will be required to provide results in the 100M Individual Medley and the 400m Free.
Note: the maximum time standard for the 400m Free is 9:14.00.
