

All NCCP courses are overseen by the Coaches Association of Canada.

Transcripts can be viewed at <https://thelocker.coach.ca>

NCCP

National Coaching Certification Program

All Volunteers

Within their first year of volunteering with Special Olympics all volunteers should have completed the following courses:

Special Olympics Community or Competitive Course
(1 day, in person course)

www1.specialolympicsontario.com/events

Making Headway in Sports Concussion Awareness (Free, online module)

www.coach.ca/concussion-awareness-p153385

Provincial Games

Coaches applying to attend the Provincial Games are required to have completed the following courses:

Make Ethical Decisions
*once course has been taken, the online evaluation must also be completed
(In-person, online and Home Study options available)

www.coachesontario.ca/nccp-training/competition-introduction/make-ethical-decisions/

Either One (1) Sport Specific course in the sport they are attending games for OR Two (2)* Multi-Sport modules

*NOTE: a sport specific course in a sport they are not attending games for would count as 1 of the 2 required courses

(In-person, online and Home Study courses available)

www.coachesontario.ca/nccp-training/course-calendar/

Additional Training

For coaches looking to further their knowledge and education or coach at National Games there are many courses they can take

The CAO has a number of Multi-Sport courses available in a variety of topics
(In-person, online and Home Study options available)

www.coachesontario.ca/nccp-training/course-calendar/

There are Sport Specific Course Requirements to coach at National Games. Please see next page to view Sport specific requirements

Sport Specific courses are available through the National or Provincial Sport Organization

(Options for courses are specific to each organization)

www.mtc.gov.on.ca/en/sport/sport/psolistings.html

SO Professional Development

Special Olympics has put together a number of volunteer-led professional development courses that can be found on our online learning platform. These cover a wide variety of topics including: AODA, position specific training, Divisioning, Advancement, Welcoming New Volunteers, etc. Athlete leadership courses can also be found on the portal.

(All courses are online)

www.solearn.ca