

Unified Champion Schools Regional Inclusive Conference Series

Unified Champion Schools – What is it?

Unified Champion Schools is a global inclusive school strategy developed and implemented by Special Olympics Ontario in partnership with schools across the province.

It's goal is to foster inclusive school communities through inclusive sport and health initiatives, youth leadership development, and whole-school engagement. The UCS model brings together students of all abilities using an integration approach called "unified," where students with disabilities participate alongside their mainstream peers in meaningful, shared experiences.

Dates: Saturdays from October 18 to November 1

Time: 10:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Locations: Hosted across seven Champion School
